COUNCIL INTERVIEWS TWO MORE FIRMS FOR WATER-SEWER PROJECT

Two engineering firms were interviewed by the City Council during the past week concerning plans and specifications for a water supply and distribution system and a sewerage system for the community. Firms interviewed were David W. Godat & Associates of New Orleans, La., and Mallett & Associates of Jackson, Miss. The waterworks and sewerage project was selected by the general public as number one project for sponsorship by the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce. The poll was conducted about three months ago. An advisory committee of the Chamber of Commerce was named to work with the City Council.

PETE PORTER TO BE FEATURED IN LOCAL GREYHOUND PROMOTION

The star attraction in a three-month nationwide advertising campaign is what Paul E. Porter Sr. of Bay St. Louis will be when Greyhound Bus Lines launches its "Meet the Man" promotion next week. Porter, popular local proprietor of Porter's Pontiac Service and agent for Gulf Refining Co. has been in business in Bay St. Louis since 1931 and can take a lot of personal credit for his part in the development of a great transportation system. As a tribute to his efforts, Greyhound will develop its local and national advertising for the next three months to recognition of Paul Porter and his thousands of fellow agents by describing how important their services have been to Greyhound and the communities in which they live. Porter will be personally featured in advertising appearing in the Hancock County Eagle while the Greyhound agents as a group will be featured in national magazines and television advertising. Although Paul E. Porter Sr. is already well known to most of his patrons, he is hopeful that the next couple of months will bring him into contact with many new friends and customers.

Lions Plan Party For Kids On Hallowe'en

LWV HEARS PHILLIPS EXPLAIN ELECTIONAL VOTE LAST THURSDAY

The League of Women Voters of Bay St. Louis held its first unit study group meeting of the season on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Al Landers on Coleman Ave., Waveland.

Because of repeated requests for information on the working of the electoral college and the difference between electoral and popular votes in presidential elections, Mrs. Landers asked Mr. Walter James Phillips to address the meeting and answer any question asked by those who did not understand this elective procedure. Mr. Phillips explained that the electoral college is a constitutional device which was the outgrowth of the early days of our country when communication was slow and difficult and it was impossible for the average voter to know the men of talent and integrity who sought public office. But representation of the people was essential and to facilitate this the citizens chose the men from their own state in whom they had the greatest confidence and left it to this man, the elector, to cast his vote for the man whom he considered most competent for this important office. The method of selection of electors to cast the state's electoral vote is regulated by the various state legislatures.

Since the development of strong political parties, candidates and electors conforming with the principles of the party were chosen. All elected party representatives from the precincts of the county meet and elect their representatives for the state. The delegates as they are called meet in the National convention and select their party's candidates for the office of President and vice-president of the United States. This same procedure is followed by each political party. However, after the candidate is selected, there is still the problem of getting him elected, since there are two or more major political parties in the United States. Each party, therefore, nominates a slate of candidates for electors. There is one elector from each representative and senator in Congress from the state and each elector is pledged to vote for the candidate of his party. These nominees for the electoral college are selected by the same national convention. Now we have seen that each recognized party has its list of electors, and the final decision rests in the number of votes given the pledged electors of each party, for the candidate wins whose group of electors has the most votes. Thus, whether your vote is cast directly for the candidate of your choice, or indirectly for the electors who are pledged to that candidate, it is that vote, your own vote, which will decide the winning party.

That is why the League of Women Voters of Bay St. Louis, through every year to go to the polls November 4 with the decision clearly and intelligently made as to how to vote. The League is non-partisan, and asks no one to vote for any particular party or candidate, but it does stress the importance of each voter knowing the issues at stake and voicing his honest choice.

ROSA ZINGARLING RITES ARE HELD SUNDAY

Funeral services for Miss Rosa Zingarling were held Sunday, Sept. 28, at 1:30 p. m. from her residence with interment in the Bayou LaCrosse Cemetery. Religious services were conducted by the Rev. Monsignor A. J. Gmelch at the home and in the Bayou LaCrosse Catholic Church.

Miss Zingarling died at her Bayou LaCrosse home Saturday, September 27 at 12:30 p. m. She was the sister of Miss Theresa Zingarling and Matthew B. Zingarling and leaves a number of nieces and nephews. She was the daughter of the late Barbara Hausch and the late John Zingarling. She represented an old resident family of Hancock County.

Serving as pallbearers were her six nephews, Robert Zingarling, Randolph Zingarling, Andrew Asher, Albert Kramky, Ed Lader and Emil Manieri.

Returns to Job at Bank

DIES IN INDIANA

Mr. W. Vaughan of Fort Wayne, Ind., died early Wednesday morning. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Vaughan, two sisters, Mrs. Lucille Vaughan, Mrs. L. M. Smith, and Mrs. L. M. Smith, Bay St. Louis. Particulars are not known at this time.

For the spooks and hobgoblins and the witches that appear on Hallowe'en there will be a new kind of fun this year. So says the local Lions Club, because the Lions are planning something that should be entertaining for kids of all ages. It's a Community Hallowe'en party which will include a little bit of everything—including a parade, prizes for the maskers, and perhaps even some entertainment to go along with it.

So get ready, kids! Get your thinking caps on and get those spook costumes, hobgoblin and witch costumes ready! Hallowe'en will soon be here and the fun will be turned on! Watch the Hancock County Eagle for further announcements of this event being sponsored by the Lions Club.

ORIENTATION COURSES FOR VA WORKERS

The semi-annual VA Orientation and Induction Course for prospective volunteer workers of Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian, Gulfport and surrounding area will be presented by the professional staff of the Gulfport Veterans Administration Hospital beginning at 1:30 p. m. on October 15, 1952, it was announced today by Dr. W. K. Freeman, hospital manager.

The hospital is presenting the seven-hour course to orient interested adults on the general subject of mental hygiene so that they will achieve a better understanding of the neuropsychiatric patient and the medical facilities available at the hospital in the care and treatment program. This series of lectures constitutes the course of study offered semi-annually to adults of the coastal area to qualify them as certified volunteers in the hospital program.

The Orientation Course is open to all adults who have sufficient leisure time and interest to aid the disabled servicemen to participate in the therapeutic programs at the hospital. Attendance at the lectures does not obligate individuals to become volunteer workers; however, upon termination of the lecture series, those interested will be accepted as qualified volunteers.

Personalized service rendered by volunteers in the ancillary services of the hospital—Nursing Service, Physical Medicine, Rehabilitation Service, Special Services, Psychological Service, constitutes one of the finest contributions to patient recovery that can be offered by the community. By providing supplementary assistance to the professional staff, greater participation by patients in the hospital treatment program is realized. Volunteers on duty in the Physical Medicine Rehabilitation Service assist the patients in many ways, including teaching of work, plastics, weaving and teaching of educational subjects. In Special Services, volunteers are needed to assist the staff in social recreation for patients, informal dances, community singing and increasing library ward care services to patients on the wards.

Many valuable services can be performed by volunteers participating in the Nursing Service, such as assisting the patients in writing letters to their families and dependents, reading to patients and friendly visitations on the wards. Further details on the VA Orientation Course and the Hospital Voluntary Service program can be had by calling Mr. Carl Fridlund, chairman of the VA Voluntary Service Committee, at the Gulfport Veterans Administration Hospital.

NEW ENTERTAINMENT ANNOUNCED FOR STATE FAIR

JACKSON (Special) — This year's grandstand extravaganza, "State Fair Revue of 1952," scheduled for the Mississippi State Fair, starting Oct. 6-October 11, will be in the form of an all-new mode of entertainment, it was announced today by J. M. Dean, Executive Secretary of the Fair.

The four big scenes of the gigantic show which has been in production at the Chicago studios of Barnes-Carrther's Theatrical Enterprises, Inc., since last winter, will be the most lavish all-star musical presentation in Fair history. These numbers are carefully planned with superb choreography, beautiful settings, costumes, music and lighting.

Some of the other outstanding acts will feature Evers and Dolores, true celebrities of the tight wires. Dolores, said to be the only wire walker in the world to perform on her toes, will present a breath-taking and intricate ballet. The Five White Guards, outstanding singing group, will be featured throughout the performance. The White Guards have appeared in many smart supper clubs, theatres, hotels and the motion pictures.

On the Midway of the 1952 Mississippi State Fair will be the Gooding Amusement Co., bringing their outstanding acts and novelties galore. Highlighting the Gooding production will be Diane Ross and Her Name All Star Revue, parading a program of well known personalities of the entertainment world.

For those who seek new thrills, the Gooding Company has 25 different, exciting rides to suit any fancy. For the children there is the wonderful "Kiddie Wonderland," full of fun and excitement.

These outstanding acts and entertainment features, plus interesting and educational exhibits of Mississippi's progress in Industry and Agriculture, promise to make the 1952 Mississippi State Fair the best ever held in the great Magnolia State.

POLIO SETS NEW
MARK IN WEEK
ENDING AUG. 30

NEW YORK — Polio set a new high mark for the week in the nation's history, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis said. Its analysis showed there were 367 more cases in the week ending Aug. 30 than during the corresponding week of 1949, the year of the nation's worst polio epidemic.

From Jan. 1 to Aug. 30 of this year there have been 23,536 cases. During the corresponding periods of 1951 and 1949, there were 13,648 and 23,718 cases, respectively.

The analysis also showed that polio in 1952 is 75 per cent higher than the average for the five-year period of 1947 through 1951.

The Foundation said the U.S. Public Health Service reported 3,559 polio cases in the nation last week. The Foundation last week furnished stricken areas with 143 respirators—an all-time record.

Dr. Florence Moog reported that experiments with mice suggest this possibility, although she emphasized that any such use of the powerful drug would necessarily have to be in the hands of doctors having long experience in administering the medicine.

Cortisone is the drug that has shown promise in the treatment of arthritis and certain other conditions. But experts, in its use have repeatedly warned of the possibility of harmful reactions and the need for extreme care in using it.

WHITE REFUSES
GUARD ON LIQUOR

$3000 Per Raid, He Says
Sees No Point In Spending

JACKSON — Gov. Hugh White declared Saturday that he could not use the National Guard to enforce prohibition laws in every county in Mississippi.

The Governor, who said he had been receiving sheafs of petitions, letters and requests for enforcement of liquor laws, said "there just is no point in spending two or three thousand dollars to call the guard out for every reported violation. I don't have the funds for it and it would not permanently close down bootleggers from operating."

He said raiding was not a method of local law enforcement.

The chief executive said in the final analysis it was a question of "what do the people want? Jurors are unwilling to assess the kind of traffic. In reality enforcement comes back to the people."

White said he thought the "black market" tax was given in the minds of most people as a license to sell liquor.

The "black market" tax is a 10 per cent levy collected by the state on illegally sold liquor.

"It is a farce," White said, "for the state to collect a tax on one hand for what it calls illegal on the other." The governor voted against the tax when it first passed in the Legislature under former Gov. Tom Bailey's administration.

MCKENZIE TO HEAD
STEVENSON CAMPAIGN

Lee Hamer McKenzie, of Ashland, was named as State Democratic Campaign director Friday, Sept. 12, and immediately opened offices at the Walthall Hotel in Jackson, Miss.

W. F. Fat McMillan, President of the Commercial Savings Bank and Trust Co., Jackson, was elected finance director and treasurer for the party.

The two will head up an intensive campaign in this state directed to the election of Governor Adlai Stevenson of Illinois for President of the United States and Senator John Sparkman for Vice President.

Announcement of the appointment of the two leaders was made by Chairman Tom Tubbs, West Point, of the State Democratic Executive Committee. Mr. McKenzie, County Attorney for Benton County, and a member of the State Legislature in the 1948-52 term said that offices are now open in rooms 501-502 and 503 in the Walthall Hotel, Jackson, Miss.

The 29-year-old campaign director is considered one of the outstanding young attorneys of the state.

Governor Hugh White, when notified of McKenzie's appointment, declared:

"He is a fine young man of great ability. I think he will institute a campaign for Stevenson and Sparkman that will carry the party to another victory in November."

Governor White predicted that the Democratic Party will win handily in this state, and that the Republicans will not get more than 20,000 to 25,000 votes in this state.

Chairman McKenzie said that the Democrats will put a strong list of speakers in the field for Stevenson and Sparkman, headed by the two United States Senators, the Congressman, the Governor, Lt. Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State, Commissioner of Agriculture and other leaders not on the state official roster.

It was announced that the state will be organized for the Democratic ticket from the precinct and county levels upward, and that nothing will be left undone to promote harmony and a majority edict of the voters for the Democratic nominees in the November 4 general election.

McKenzie is a native Mississippian, born at Michigan City, Nov. 2, 1923. He is a graduate of the Ole Miss Law school, member of the American Legion, a Mason, member of the Methodist Church and is married.

Roger Heitzmann, district cooper-ator, Fenton Community, constructed 3,500 feet of terraces this week. Heitzmann is busy preparing land to plant oats and clover for winter grazing.

Three additional farms were added to Hancock County Soil Conservation District program this week. Farm plans were completed for Bollie J. Led-ner, J. N. Randall and Agnes Stiglett.

RCA Victor Kaitheer (Model 177202)
Thrilling to look at—this model is "a head" in any style of decor. Lustrous mahogany grain finish. Blond grain finish. Matching console. Available at extra cost.

- No matter which "Magic Monitor" set you like best, you can be sure it's a wise buy. TV fans never had it so good...and here's why:
- The electronic "Magic Monitor," a complex circuit system, inside your set, constantly adjusts TV pictures automatically—just as the studio engineer "monitors" the image before it goes on the air.
- With television's first double-shielded tuner and a completely shielded chassis, it filters out "honey-wire" pictures before they reach your screen!
- The "Magic Monitor" steps up power, amplifies weak signals, holds brightness constant.
- Easy adaptation to U.H.F.? Of course! These new sets come straight from the company where U.H.F. was pioneered!

Colonel John W. Patton Jr., State Director of Selective Service for Mississippi, invites the attention of all students to the new release from Major General Lewis B. Hershoy, National Director of Selective Service. General Hershoy has announced the third nationwide series of Selective Service College Qualification Tests, to be given on Thursday, December 4, 1952, and on Thursday, April 23, 1953, at approximately 1,000 centers. Local boards use the test scores, or class standing of students, to determine eligibility for consideration for deferment.

College Qualification Tests
Announced for Deferments

A total of 413,395 students have already taken the tests. An estimated total of almost a half-million students will have been tested by next spring. The Educational Testing Service of Princeton, New Jersey, has again been designated to prepare and administer the tests on the basis of submitted data and to send each examinee's score to selective service local boards. Students currently deferred on the basis of test scores or class standards number about 190,000.

General Hershoy emphasized that increasing manpower demands make it important that each draft-eligible student who has not taken the test do so as soon as possible. Students whose academic year will end in January 1953 have been urged to take the December 4, 1952 tests so they will have a test score in their cover sheets before the end of their academic year, at which time their boards will reopen and consider their cases to determine whether they should be deferred as students. To be eligible to apply for the college deferment test a student must (1) intend to request deferment as a student; (2) be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction; and (3) must not previously have taken the Selective Service College Qualification Test.

Applicants for the test will mail application blanks for the December 4, 1952 and April 23, 1953 administrations to Educational Testing Service in self-addressed envelopes, which will be given to registrars by local boards. These cards have not yet been mailed to local boards and it was emphasized that they will not be available until after October 1, 1952. Applications for the December 4, 1952 test must be postmarked not later than November 1, 1952. Applications postmarked after midnight of that date cannot be accepted for the December test.

The present criteria for deferment as an undergraduate student are either a satisfactory score (70) on the Selective Service College Qualification Test or specified rank in class (upper half of the male freshmen class, upper two thirds of the male sophomore class, or upper three fourths of the male junior class.)

Students accepted for admission or attending a graduate school prior to July 1, 1951, satisfy the criteria if their work is satisfactory. Graduate students admitted or attending after July 1, 1951, must have been in the upper half of their classes during their senior year or make a score of 75 or better on the test. It is not mandatory for local boards to follow the criteria. General Hershoy said the criteria are a many times that the standards may be raised any time necessary for manpower demands. The two forthcoming administrations of the College Qualification Test are of the eighth and ninth testing dates of the program. In the series of tests 63 per cent of the students first achieved a score of 70 or better. In the second series 58 per cent of the students made 70 or better. The tests in all three series are equivalent in difficulty. Use of tests by the Selective Service System, along with class standing, originally was based on recommendations of the six Scientific Advisory committees appointed in 1948 by General Hershoy. The Committee's report, presented by Dr. M. H. Tretton, Chairman, was made in the fall of 1950. After a subcommittee had prepared general specifications for a suitable test of scholastic aptitude, Educational Testing Service was designated as the testing agency to conduct the construction of the test and its nationwide administration. The Congress, in the 1951 Armed Forces and Service Act, declared that adequate provision for national security requires maximum effort in the field of scientific research and development.

Bing Crosby Starred In
"Just For You" Sun, Mon, Tue
At Hi-Way Drive-In Theatre

"Just For You," in Technicolor, plays Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 5, 6 and 7, at the Highway Drive-In Theatre, starring ever-lovable Bing Crosby and Jane Wyman.

Bing sings his way into a romance, his daughter into girls' school and his son into the Air Force. The story, involving the efforts of a widowed father to become reacquainted with his teen-age son and daughter keeps the suspense at a steady pitch. Jane Wyman gives a wonderful performance as the singing star who is the object of the affections of both father and son.

This Technicolor production has everything. Comedy, drama and natural superb singing by the Old Bing himself. Supporting these two great stars is Ethel Barrymore as the "Miss Fixit" who finally uncovers the complications of Bing Crosby, his sweetheart and his two children.

"Big Jim McLain" at
Star Sun, Mon, Tues,
October 5 - 6 - 7

John Wayne, following recent success in a picture called "The Quiet Man," is far from quiet in his latest adventure epic, "Big Jim McLain," the Wayne-Fellows production for Warner Bros. which debuts locally at the Star Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 5, 6, 7.

Beautiful Nancy Olson provides the romance and James Arness also stars in this rugged outdoor drama the first motion picture filmed in Hawaii and featuring Dan Lutz, head of Honolulu's internationally famous police department.

As a trouble-shooting special agent assigned to the investigation of a world-wide terror ring headquartered in Hawaii, Wayne plays one of the most two-fisted roles of his career. From local informers, the investigator learns the names of the top terrorist leaders, and sets out to prove their guilt. How "Big Jim McLain" digs into his bag of sleuthing tricks to smash his adversaries makes for one of the season's big action offerings, according to advance reports.

Some of the major sequences of the picture were shot at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, Honolulu's world known hostelry, while other scenic highlights were recorded against a background around the pool of Edgewater, the Outrigger Canoe Club where the famed Hawaiian beach boys and the sportsmen of the islands stage their wondrous surfboard riding and canoeing exhibitions. Other highlights are an actual Shinto temple, the Chinatown waterfront, and a wealth of the natural, beautiful and rugged scenery.

The Pearl River County 4-H Tung Nursery Contest acreage will be judged, according to an announcement by Clarence E. Talar, assistant county agent. Mr. Talar reports that 62 4-H club members have entered the contest, each with at least one-tenth acre nursery of recommended varieties of tung. The contest is sponsored by the American Tung Oil Association with awards offered as follows: $60 first place; $50 second; $40, third; $30 fourth; and $20 fifth.

LAFONTAINE-SCIENNA NUPTIAL VOWS ARE EXCHANGED SUNDAY

A small but pretty wedding was that of Miss Mary Louise Scienna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Scienna and the late Mrs. Scienna of Bay St. Louis to Mr. Edward Oliver Lafontaine, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lafontaine of New Orleans, who were married Sunday, September 28 at three o'clock in the afternoon in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, the Rev. Father E. P. Desmond performing the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of French lace over white satin with a full skirt falling ankle length and long over the hand sleeves. The bodice was front trimmed in pearl buttons. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held to the head with a spray of fleur d'amour, and she carried an arrangement of orchids and fleur d'amour on a prayer book.

The Bridal Chorus from Lobengren was played by Professor John Hemmerbach for the processional. During the ceremony Mrs. Janelle McLean sang the Ave Maria and Panis Angelicus. Mendelssohn's March was played for the recessional.

The bride had as her only attendant her sister, Mrs. Nina Davis, who wore a blue lace dress over blue satin with a patio length full skirt. The bodice had a deep scalloped neckline. She wore a lace hat trimmed in yellow flowers and carried yellow carnations. Mr. Lafontaine had as his best man Mr. Homer C. Lowery of Sumrall.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall, where bright flowers were used in decoration. The four tiered wedding cake centered a table covered with an ecru lace cloth and arrangements of daisies surrounded the cake.

For traveling the bride chose a brown and tan tulle suit with which she wore a matching hat. Her corsage was a white orchid and her accessories were brown. Upon their return the couple will make their home on Ulman Ave. Mr. Lafontaine is employed in Gulfport.

The bride is a graduate of Bay High School in the class of '32. She participated in the May Festival and was on the staff of the school paper.

Coming to Bay St. Louis for the wedding were the following out of town relatives: Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Scienna, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Sunzuri, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sunzuri, Mrs. Louis Costello and son, all of New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herring of Gulfport and Peter Fautetta from Galveston, Texas.

MARCELLA GERMANI BECOMES BRIDE OF E. J. COVACEVICH

One of the prettiest weddings of the season claiming much interest on the Coast and in New Orleans was that of Miss Marcella Grace Germani, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus P. Germani of Biloxi and Mr. Edward Jack Covacevich, son of Mr. Donald Covacevich of Biloxi and Mrs. W. A. Sims of New Orleans took place Sunday, Sept. 28 at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the Church of the Nativity. The Rev. Father Kevin Egan performed at the double ring ceremony in the presence of members of the two families and a large gathering of friends. Upon the altar were vases filled with white Fall flowers, gladioli and ferns and lit by numerous cathedral tapers. On either side of the altar were vases of flowers filled with similar blooms. Nuptial organ selections were furnished by Chester Storey. Including were the traditional wedding marches by Wagner and Mendelssohn as the processional and recessional. Fred Frankson played Ave Maria and On This Day O Beautiful Mother.

The pretty brunette bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. She wore an ankle length gown of imported chintilly scalloped lace, edged with a high pointed collar, long bodice fastened down the front with satin covered buttons and long lace sleeves embroidered with seed pearls and fastened at the wrist with similar buttons. An overskirt of scalloped lace extended to the knee and double layers of nylon tulle formed the bottom of the skirt. The waist length veil of nylon illusion was attached to a lace baby bonnet-type headpiece trimmed with net ruffles and orange and mounted on a mother of pearl prayer book, gift of the groom.

The bride's cousin, Miss Jimmie B. McFie, was maid of honor. She wore an ankle length gown of imported pale pink chintilly lace and tulle fashioned as the bride's. Her headpiece was a bonnet effect made of lace and tulle. She carried pink carnations and wore a pearl necklace, gift of the bride.

The bride maid Miss Mary Catherine Sutter also wore an ankle length gown and Mendelssohn as the processional and recessional. Fred Frankson played Ave Maria and On This Day O Beautiful Mother.
